

CINE SCHOOL Service Terms of Use

✓ Submitting the form does not constitute a binding reservation. Completing the ticket reservation requires telephone contact with representatives of the Company and written confirmation from the reservations manager.

✓ For reasons of management of all requests, priority order is observed, based on the availability of theaters and/or the number of tickets.

✓ The Company reserves the right to refuse the screening of a specific film or documentary and to suggest an alternative, if it deems that the selected content is not suitable for a specific age group.

Special reduced admission prices apply per student, according to the policy announced regarding the activity in other sections (see the HOW IT WORKS section).

✓ Each interested party declares and guarantees that: the reservation is made only for the needs of a school/educational visit, the person submitting the interest form has the right to represent the school and to make relevant communication and reservations on behalf of the school, the tickets will not be resold, nor will they be used in the context of any commercial or for-profit activity.

✓ In no case is the Company liable for: issues of suitability and responsiveness of the content to specific educational requirements, delays in communication or in finalizing reservations, force majeure events or circumstances beyond its control, temporary or unavailability or technical access problems
